Chapter 1 Summary – Daniel’s Faithfulness in Babylon

After King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon conquered Jerusalem, he brought some of the smartest and most gifted children from Judah to serve in his palace. Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah were among them. They were given new Babylonian names and were taught the Babylonian language and customs. However, Daniel decided not to follow the costumes of their worldly and ungodly kingdom, but rather to continue in the way that they were brought up; the godly way. The children of Judah did not eat the food or drink the wine of Babylon, instead, they requested a diet that they believed would please God. God blessed their obedience, and they looked healthier than the other children and were given great wisdom and understanding. By the end of their training, they were found to be ten times wiser than all the magicians and astrologers in Babylon.
