REFLECTING ON PEACE

What is God saying about our peace in this season?

IN THE MIDST OF CIVIL CONFLICT; GODS PEOPLE ARE
TO POSSESS PEACE.

WHAT IS PEACE?

A STATE OF TRANQUILITY, FREEDOM
FROM WAR, VIOLENCE, OR MENTAL DISTURBANCE, AND THE
PRESENCE OF HARMONY
IN PERSONAL OR PUBLIC RELATIONS.

TODAY'S READING

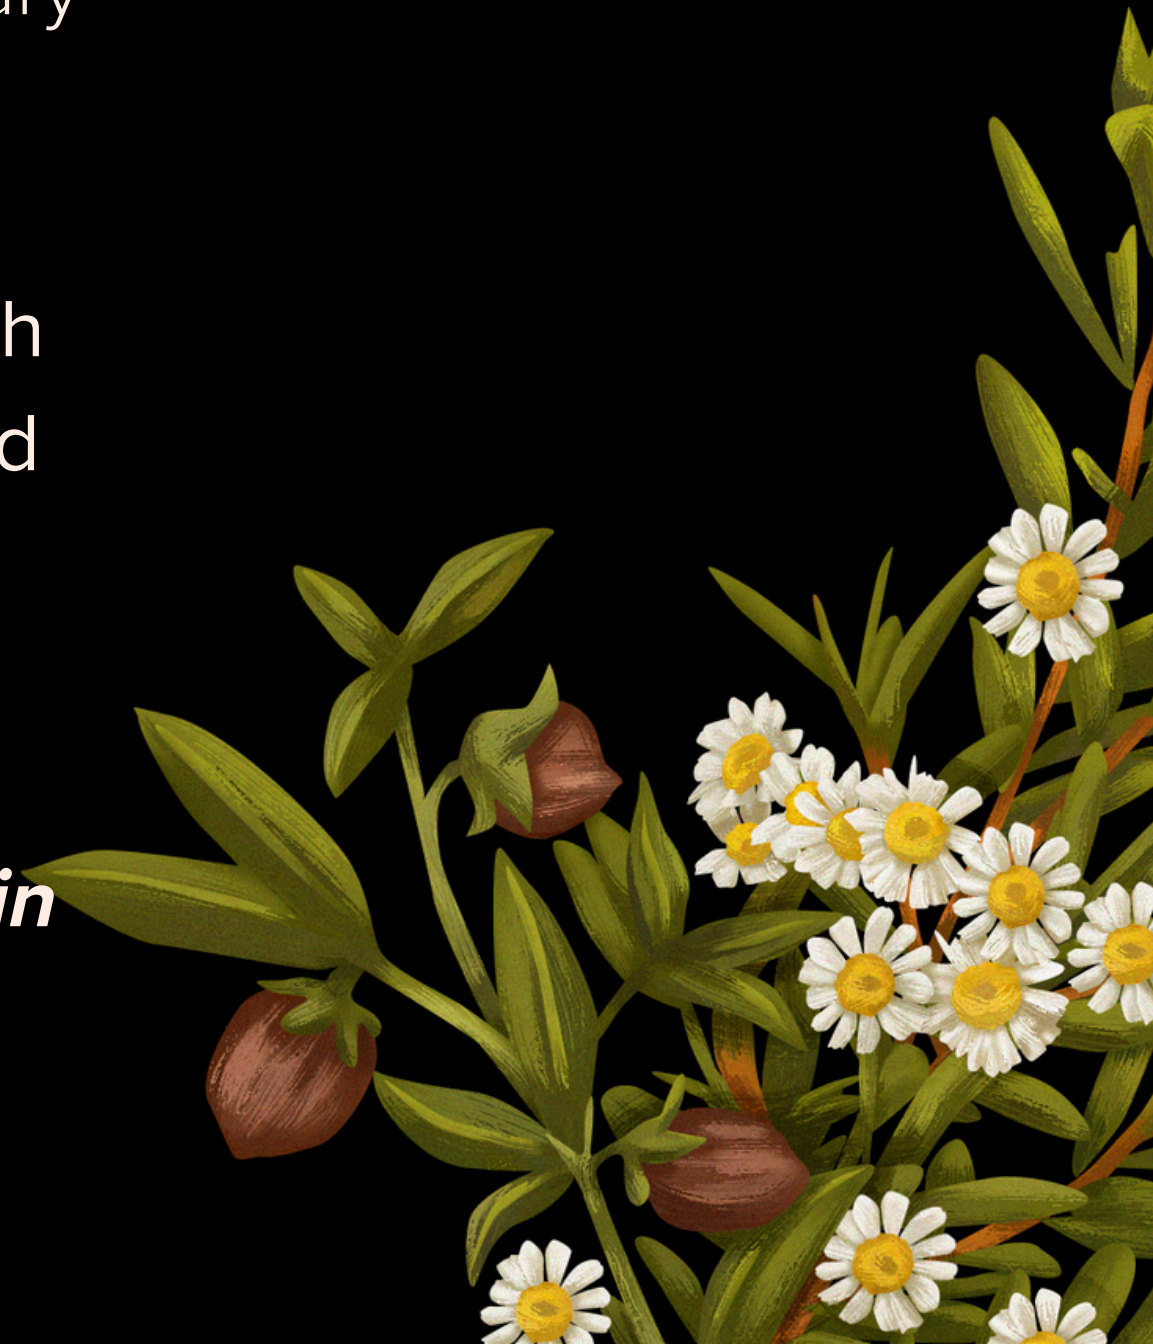

I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them and multiply them, and will put My sanctuary in their midst forever. Ezkeial 37:26

Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." RomN 5:1

This peace is the result of justification, a restored relationship with God through faith in Christ.

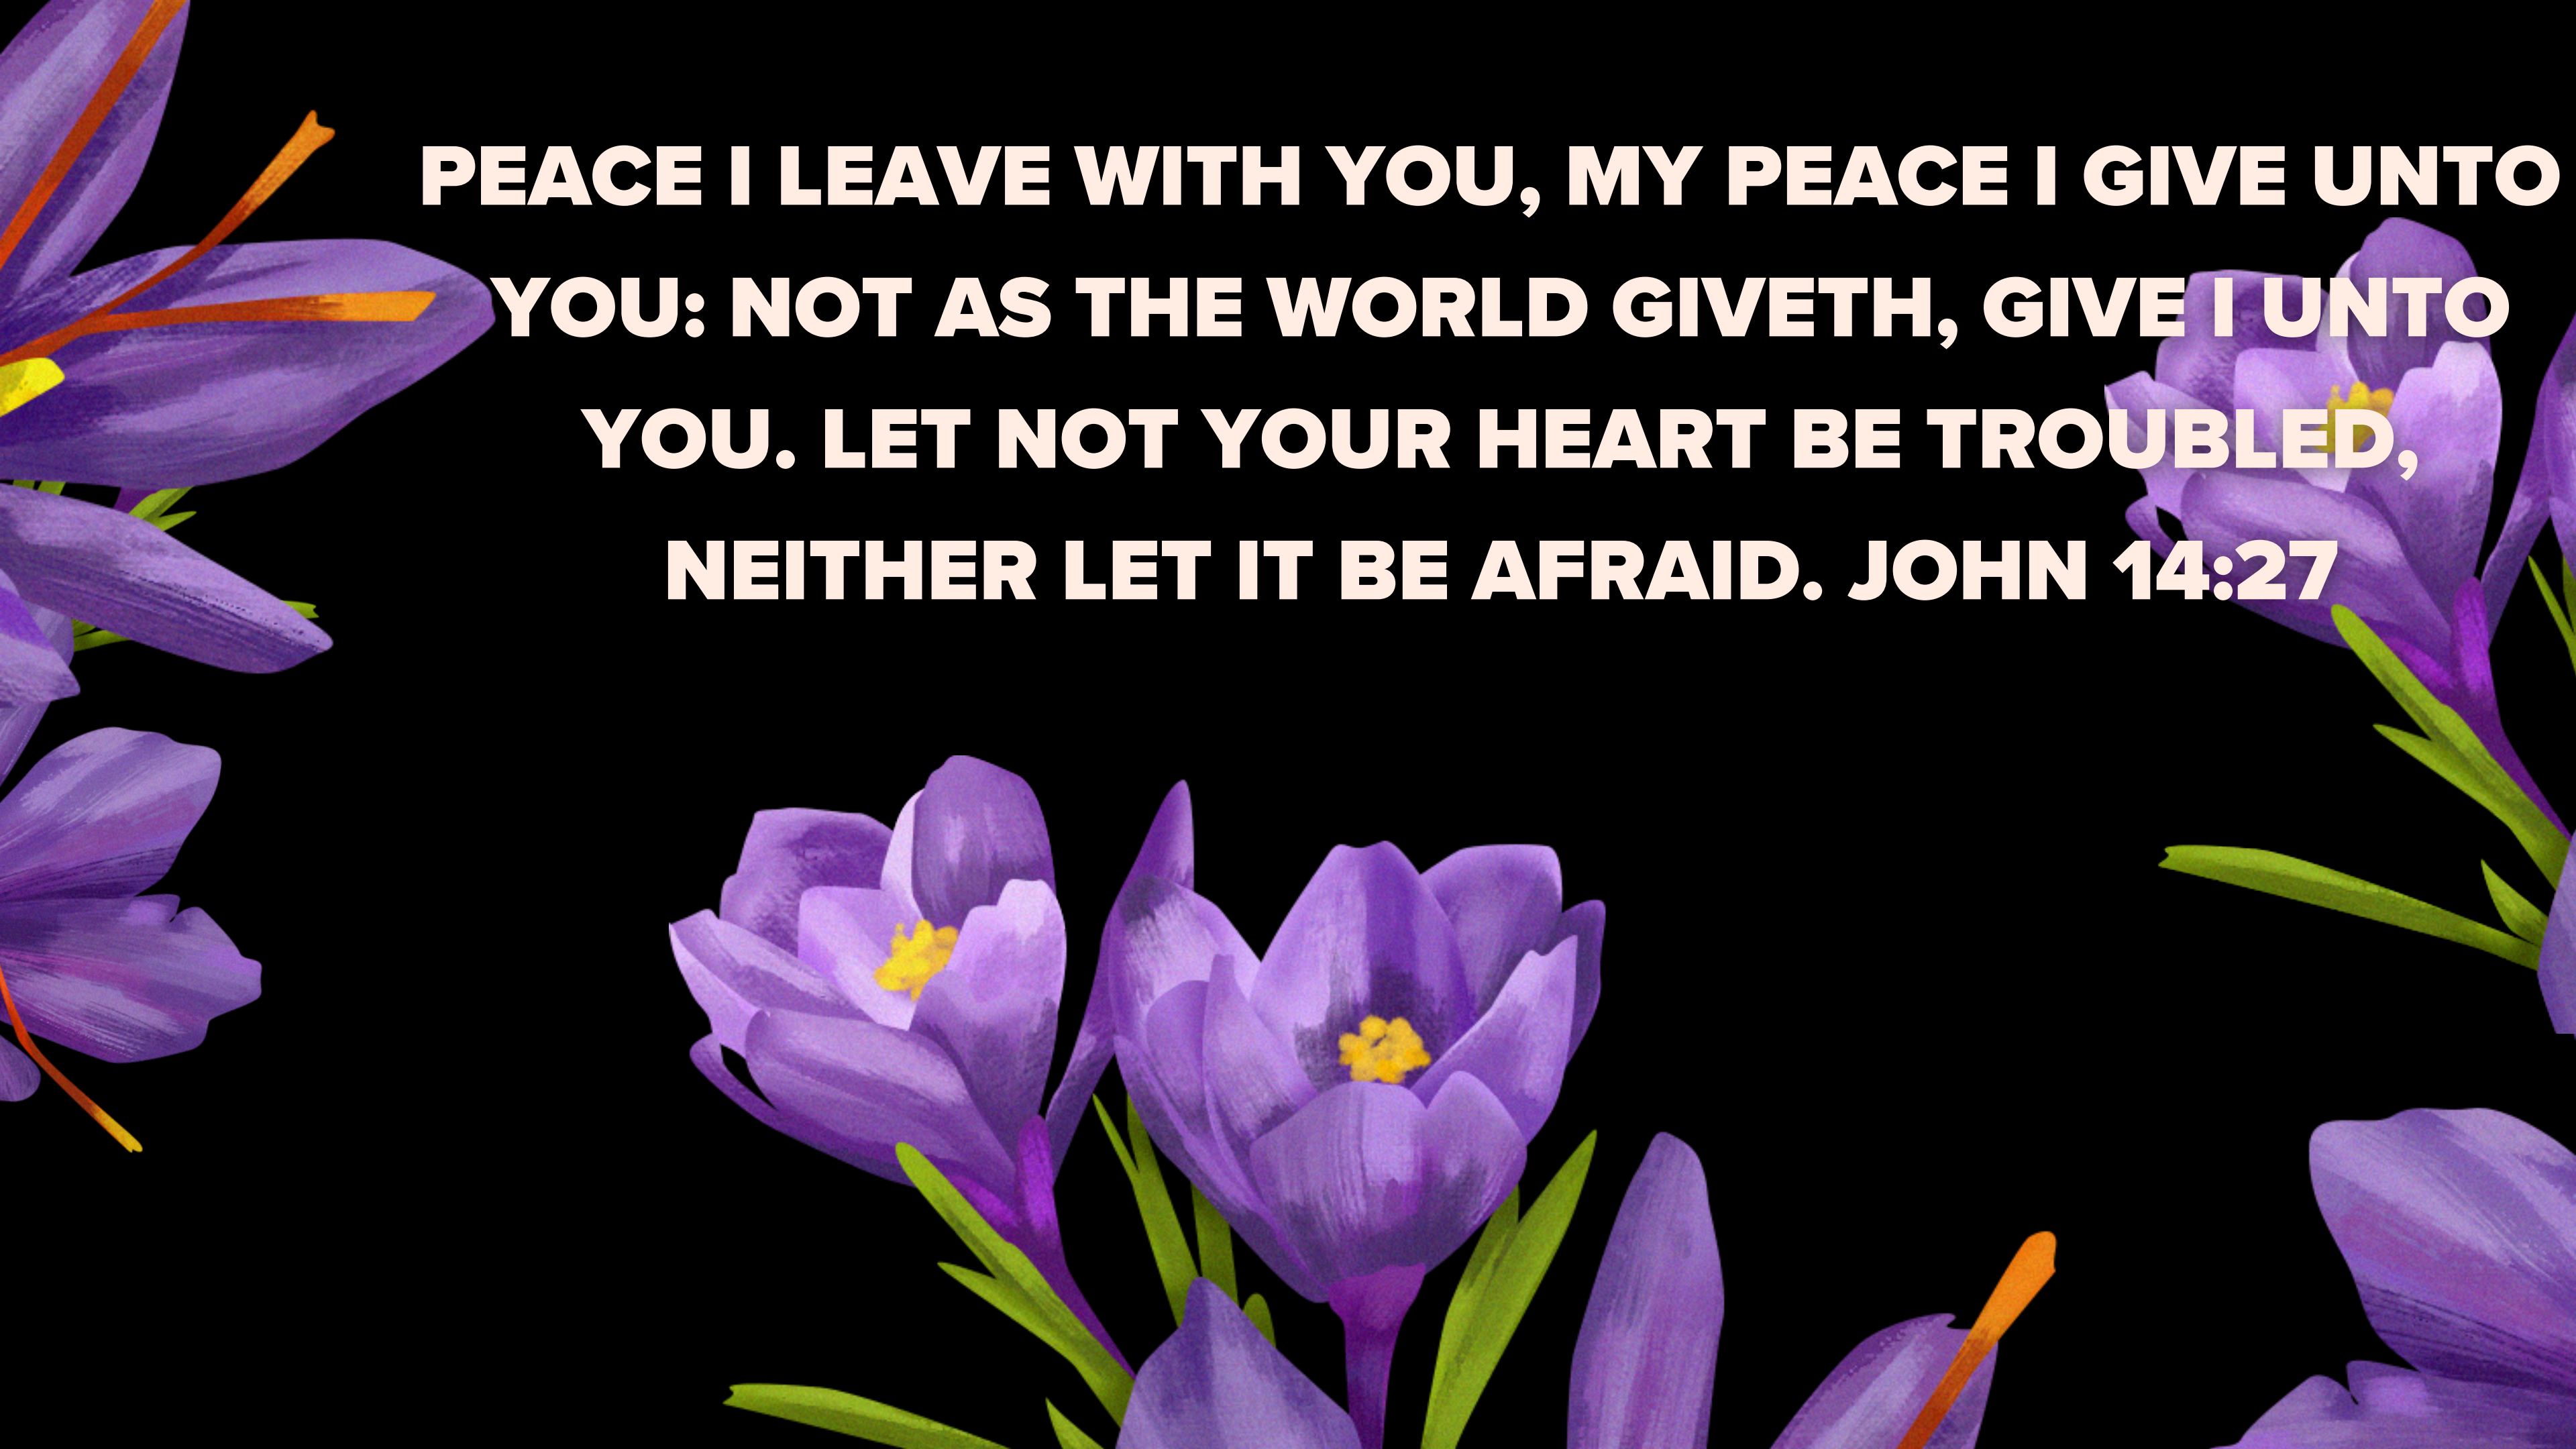

TODAY'S SERMON

A message about faith, life, hope, peace

Although we look for outward peace, which is environmental, and has precursors, and conditions, in a controlled or uncontrolled space. What God gives is inner peace, in the thoughts, the perspectives, and the believing. Peace is an inner sanctuary, rest is bodily relaxation. Both can exist, but, the peace of God passeth all understanding, and may create the outer calm for the physical realm.

Making a decision to stop, listen, and wait for the Lord's next instruction can be peaceful. This disrupts the current kaos, and forces the wisdom, and presence of God, to intervene. A regrouping may be needed when disarray, and disharmony is at work.

PEACE I LEAVE WITH YOU, MY PEACE I GIVE UNTO YOU: NOT AS THE WORLD GIVETH, GIVE I UNTO
YOU. LET NOT YOUR HEART BE TROUBLED,
NEITHER LET IT BE AFRAID. JOHN 14:27

GO IN PEACE
